Microsoft Text-to-Speech Package

Updated: October 07, 2002

Enhance eReading with New Accessibility Options

Microsoft Reader for Tablet PC and Microsoft Reader for Windows-based PCs and laptops boast accessibility features that are bringing eBooks to more communities and providing a richer on-screen reading experience with additional TTS and Verbosity functionality. To enable Microsoft Reader to take advantage of existing speech technologies, you must install the new Microsoft Reader Text-to-Speech (TTS) Package 1.0.

Note: You must have Microsoft Reader 2.0 installed on your machine before Microsoft Reader Text-to-Speech Package 1.0 can be installed. This download does not change the behavior in Microsoft Excel version 2002.

Microsoft Reader Text-to-Speech Package is localized in three languages. All versions maintain the same system requirements, but the download size varies slightly.

- Microsoft Reader Text-to-Speech Package 1.0 (English) - 5.877 MB
- Microsoft Reader Text-to-Speech Package 1.0 (French) - 5.517 MB
- Microsoft Reader Text-to-Speech Package 1.0 (German) - 5.733 MB
